MARCH 2025

SPRING IS IN THE AIR

Spring is in full bloom. As the world stirs from winter's embrace, step into a season that has inspired poets for centuries. Blooming landscapes, sun-drenched days and cool, fragrant evenings set the stage for unforgettable escapes. Whether in the heart of a vibrant city, a secluded retreat in the hills, or by the ocean's edge, discover the magic of spring with Oberoi Hotels & Resorts.

SPRINGTIME RETREATS

Bask in nature's splendour as colours burst to life at The Oberoi Udaivilās, Udaipur, where peacocks roam amid grand gardens. Indulge in sundowners overlooking the Arabian Sea at The Oberoi, Mumbai, or feel the gentle sea breeze from your private pavilion at The Oberoi Beach Resort, Mauritius. Wherever the season takes you, let it unfold in effortless luxury.

RECOMMENDED READING

"The pleasure we derive from journeys is perhaps dependent more on the mindset with which we travel than on the destination we travel to."

Alain de Botton
The Art of Travel

"The Art of Travel" by Alain de Botton explores the deeper joys of travel—its anticipation, emotions and unexpected beauty. Through philosophy and personal reflections, it reminds us that travel is as much about perception as destination.

As spring awakens landscapes across Oberoi destinations, from the Himalayan foothills to sunlit gardens, let the season inspire new journeys and fresh perspectives.

BREEZY BITES IN BENGALURU

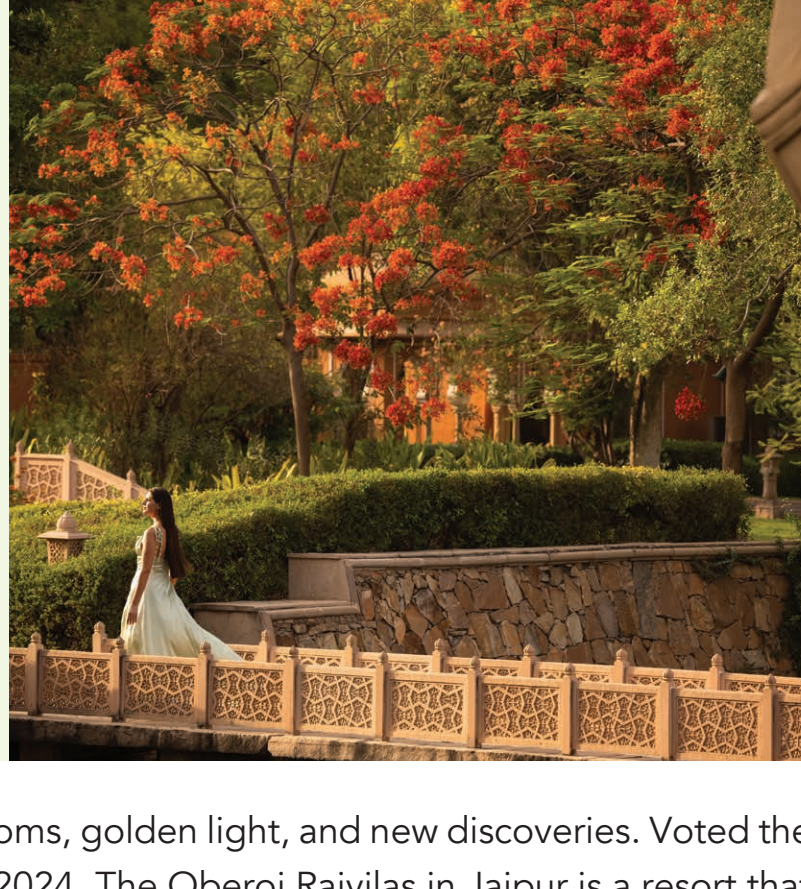

When it comes to open-air dining in balmy spring weather, it doesn't get better than the alfresco spaces at The Oberoi, Bengaluru. Be it the enchanting Lapis deck and patio, the charming verandah of The Polo Club, or the tropical Thai elegance of Rim Naam, each venue provides the perfect outdoor setting for a memorable meal.

In mid-March, Rim Naam will host a 3-night pop-up by Bo.lan, Bangkok, the 2019 Michelin-starred restaurant helmed by Chef Bo Songvisava and Chef Dylan Jones, who were featured in Season Five of Chef's Table on Netflix. The celebrated duo are visiting Bengaluru for the first time ever to demonstrate how complex, varied and unexpected Thai cuisine can be.

DESTINATION DIARIES

Have you experienced the best hotel in the world?

Every March, Jaipur comes alive with vibrant blooms, golden light, and new discoveries. Voted the Best Hotel in the World by Travel + Leisure in 2024, The Oberoi Rajvilas in Jaipur is a resort that redefined Indian luxury when it opened and continues to do so today. It's 32 acres of lush gardens are sprinkled with gorgeous villas, luxurious tents and exquisitely designed rooms, many of which now have private swimming pools. This is not just a place to stay - it is a landmark, a sanctuary, and a gateway to Jaipur beyond the forts and palaces.

During your visit, you could choose to explore contemporary art galleries, hidden cafés, and local craft ateliers, or just relax and let the Pink City's charm unfold around you. Because Jaipur is so much more than its history; it's a story still being written. And The Oberoi Rajvilas is the perfect place to begin reading it.

"TREATED LIKE A KING"

Guest story spotlight from The Oberoi Beach Resort, Sahl Hasheesh, Egypt

"Stayed many times and came back after 8 years and this hotel and it's staff just oozes class and luxury on all levels. Picked up by a limousine at the airport, arrive in the most spectacular reception ever to be greeted by staff that after all this time have not forgotten you and welcome you as friends. The suite was gorgeous - views to die for, food and service impeccable. Who does not want to be treated like a royal?"

This place has it all - peaceful, sophisticated and a spot on its own private beach overlooking Sahl Hasheesh and the Red Sea. Just amazing...treat yourself - go visit The Oberoi and live like a King."
